PRAGUE, April 24.

AFFAIRS in Sileſia begin to be ſerious. The Enemy have already quitted their Quarters. Their Troops are alſo encamping. The advanced Poſts of the two Armies are only Half-a League diſtant. We hourly expect to hear of a general Engagement. We on our Part, deſire to put a glorious End to this tedious ruinous War: And it is the Intereſt of the King of Pruſſia to prevent an Augmentation of the Auſtrian Troops in Sileſia. Our Troops in that Dutchy amount already to 100,000 Men; and when all the Reinforcements arrive, the Number of fighting Men cannot be leſs than 140,000, full of Courage and Good-will. The Hungarians have offered the Empreſs Queen an Army of 30,000 Inſurgents.

Verſailles, April 25. The Count d'Heroville de Claye will have the Command of 45,000 French, which are aſſembling near Dunkirk. Five Lieutenant-Generals, and eleven Major-Generals are to command under him. He ſet out the 24th for the general Rendezvous.

Bautzen, April 21. Sileſia will ſtill continue the Theatre of War, where 100,000 Auſtrians will take the Field this Campaign, in Oppoſition to 96 or 97,000 Pruſſians. The Prudence of Marſhal Daun, and the Activity of General Laudohn, will engage with the rapid and fruitful Genius of the King of Pruſſia.

Extract of a Letter from Breſt, April 19.

"Our Men here work double Tides, and have done ſo for ſix Weeks paſt, in preparing a great Number of flat bottomed Boats, which are now almoſt finiſhed. They are deſigned for a grand Expedition, but to what Part is kept a profound Secret, though believed to be ſomewhat near, as they will not bear much Weather."

LONDON, May 6.

By a Letter from Paris we are informed, that on the Arrival of the Marquis de Vaudreuil in France, from his late Government of Canada, he was ſent for immediately to Court, in order to give an Account of his Conduct in that Department, when ſeveral Officers appearing againſt him, and charging him with bad Management, &c. in his Proceedings againſt the Engliſh, he was committed Priſoner to the Baſtile, where he now lies. The Biſhop d'Autun, firſt Almoner to the King, interceded for him, and ſpoke ſtrongly in his Favour, ſaying, that he had acted with Spirit in the Service of his Country; and, if it did not meet with that Succeſs he meant, it was not his Fault: Adding that the Marquis had Enemies, who were much more deſerving of being ſent to the Baſtile. This Freedom, however, was ſo far from being of Service to the Marquis, that, according to theſe Letters, the good Biſhop himſelf got ſeverely reprimanded, and has been ordered to quit the Court, and confine himſelf entirely to his own Dioceſe.

By a Letter from Rome, received by the laſt Mail, we are informed, that an Engliſh Gentleman having been lately introduced to the Pope, his Holineſs was pleaſed, among other Things, to ſay, "That if the Intel-"ligence he had received of the taking of "Martinico had not been unqueſtionable, "he would not have believed we had been "able to make ſo difficult a Conqueſt; and "that the Glory of the Engliſh Nation was "now arrived to ſo great a Height, that he "ſhould have thought it an Honour to have "been an Engliſhman."

By a Gentleman juſt arrived from the Jerſey we are informed, that at Bayonne, as faſt as the Privateers come in from their Cruizes, the Men are immediately preſſed, and ſent to Breſt by Land; and that the ſame Orders are obſerved in many other Ports of France.

The King of Pruſſia hath ordered all the Auſtrian Priſoners from Sileſia, Magdebourg, and other Places in the Electorate of Brandenbourg, to be tranſported to the Pillau, and Memel, in Pruſſia, 6000 of them are already upon the Road from Sileſia; in the ſame Manner, the Empreſs Queen has ordered the Pruſſian Priſoners to Tyrol and Hungary, the extreme Parts of her Dominions.

By Order of the Parliament of Paris, the Effects of the Jeſuits in the College of Lewis le Grand, even the Church Ornaments, have been ſold by Auction.

Letters from Eimbeck ſay, that the Allies are tracing a Camp under the Town; and that the Troops under the Hereditary Prince of Brunſwick, to whom the Caſtle of Arenſberg ſurrendered, are 12,000 ſtrong.

All the Pruſſian Troops have evacuated the Dutchy of Mecklenburg, except 15,000 Foot, and 4 or 500 Horſe, who are left there to collect the Arrears of the Contributions; the reſt of them under Prince Eugene of Wurtemberg, are marched for Saxony.

May 8. Our Letters from all Parts of the Kingdom bring Accounts of the preſent prevailing Epidemic Diſorder, which in ſome Places has proved fatal, and has been ſo general as to ſeize on People of all Ages and Conſtitutions.

It is now ſo ſickly at Chatham, that the like has not been known in the Memory of the oldeſt Man living.

The preſent Diſorder which at this Time ſo alarms all Ranks of People in this Metropolis, is thought to be owing to a noxious Quality in the Air; and when not carefully attended to at the very Beginning, has, in a great Number of Inſtances, proved fatal in the Space of 48 Hours. —We are informed that ſeveral Horſes have alſo lately been ſeized with it, and died.

On Saturday an Experiment was made near Highgate, on the Temperature of the Air, by tying a Piece of freſh Meat at the Tail of a Kite, and then flying it for a conſiderable Time, when, upon drawing the Kite down again, the Meat appeared quite tainted, and ſo diſcoloured, that it was plain ſome noxious Quality muſt at preſent prevail in the Air, to have had ſuch an amazing Effect over it.

Yeſterday it was currently reported, that the Courts of France and Spain had preſented a Memorial to the States General, equally as inſolent as that ſent to the Court of Portugal.

Letters from Genoa inform us, that his moſt Catholic Majeſty, in Anſwer to the Lord Tyrawley's Threat of being at Madrid, at the Head of his Troops, ſoon after Whitſuntide, had ſent Word to the King of Portugal, that for the Sake of avoiding all further Expence in Couriers, he ſhould come and ſettle Matters with him himſelf at the Gates of Liſbon.

It is ſaid, that Sir Edward Hawke is to join the Portugueſe Squadron, in order to go in Concert upon ſome Expedition againſt the Enemy.

They write from Bonifacio, in the Iſland of Corſica, that early in the Morning of the 8th of April, the Garriſon of Corti made a Sally on the Genoeſe Troops which are beſieging that Place, of whom they killed and wounded many, took others Priſoners, and nailed up ten Pieces of Cannon; after which they ſet Fire to their Gabions, and retired in good Order back to the Town, having had but two Men killed, and 7 wounded.

There is a great Scarcity of Proviſion and Forage in the Auſtrian Army in Sileſia, notwithſtanding it is pretended that ſuch great Quantities have been tranſported from Bohemia and Hungary.

Sailed from Yarmouth and Hurſt Roads, the Syren and Gramont Men of War, with Ships under Convoy for Quebec, Newfoundland, &c.

Yeſterday Afternoon the Alderney Sloop, Capt. Hughes, arrived at Spithead from the Eaſt-Indies. —She came out the fourth of December, and has touched at Ireland.

The Atlantic, Green, from Piſcataqua for London, is arrived at Dover, after being taken and ranſomed for 1100 Pounds.

May 11. The Preparations of the French for an Invaſion of England or Ireland are immenſe, and their Troops are in Motion from all Quarters, for Dunkirk, Havre, and Breſt.

By Accounts from Turin we learn, that his Sardinian Majeſty has rejected all the Offers made by the Courts of France and Spain, and is reſolved to fulfil all his Engagements with the Court of Great-Britain, in a Manner becoming the Dignity of a Monarch.

On Sunday arrived at Cowes the Atlantic, Green, from New-England for London, who was taken by a French Privateer, and ranſomed, and afterwards met with a Spaniſh Privateer, who had taken the Brayton, of Whitehaven, John Harriſon Maſter, on the 26th of April, off Cape Clear, but treated him very civilly, and put him on board the Atlantic; he is ſafe arrived, and his Mate alſo. This was one of the Ships that came out of Carolina, under Convoy of the Dolphin Man of War.

By a Letter from Belleiſle we have Advice, that the Prince of Wales, Curling, from South-Carolina to London, which was taken a few Weeks ago, and carried to Vigaro, near Corunna, by a French Privateer, had, by the Mate, with the Aſſiſtance of four Dutchmen, been cut out of the above Port, and is brought ſafe by them into Belleiſle.

Belleiſle. We hear that the Owners have agreed to give to the Mate an eighth Part of her Value, for his Bravery.

The Enterprize Sloop, who was cruizing in the Gut of Gibraltar, is taken by a Privateer, and carried into Cadiz.

A Letter from a Merchant at Liſbon to a Gentleman in Town ſays, that the Subjects of his Portugueſe Majeſty, who live on the Borders of that Kingdom next to Spain, are beginning to remove their beſt Effects to Places of more Safety; and that many Families have already deſerted their Dwellings, and carried every Thing away along with them: So that in ſome Places, for many Miles round, neither Man nor Beaſt is to be ſeen, except where the Troops are ſtationed, who are drawing together in large Bodies, as faſt as they can towards the Frontiers, in order to oppoſe the Operations of the Spaniards, who, on their Side, are getting together their Artillery, to beſiege the Garriſon of Elvas, which has been lately reinforced with 2000 Infantry, and 1500 Troopers.

Beſides the Troops already ordered from hence, and from Belleiſle and Ireland, to Portugal, 14,000 more Infantry are, we are told, to be ſent thither; eight Battalions of which are to come from Germany, whoſe Place is to be ſupplied with Pruſſians, and the King of Pruſſia is to be reinforced with a large Body of Ruſſians, ſome ſay, 50,000 Horſe and Foot, in Britiſh Pay, in Conſideration of which no Subſidy is to be paid to Pruſſia.

This Day the Lion and Hind Men of War, with the Tranſports and Troops for Liſbon, were to ſail from Portſmouth. Two Troops of Light Horſe embarked there Yeſterday.

By the laſt Letters from Breſt it appears, there were but five Men of War in that Harbour, three of which were preparing for Sea with great Expedition, and on board of them a conſiderable Number of Land Forces were ordered to embark, the Deſtination of which was ſuppoſed to be for St. Domingo.

BOSTON, July 8.

Extract of a Letter from Liſbon, May 25, 1762.

"All Intercourſe with France and Spain is prohibited, and War has been declared here againſt theſe two Powers. The Spaniards have committed Hoſtilities on the Northern Frontiers, taking Poſſeſſion of ſome Places in the Portugueſe Territories. The Attack made in that Quarter has given a great Alarm to the Inhabitants of Porto; but as that Country is by Nature very difficult of Acceſs, it will ſo obſtruct the Enemy's Proceedings as to give Time for ſending proper Succours to protect that Province, or at leaſt to ſecure the City from any Danger. Two Engliſh Regiments are arrived here, and a further conſiderable Reinforcement is daily expected, which, added to the Portugueſe Army (which already is upwards of 40,000 Men) it is hoped will be ſufficient to baffle the Attempts which Spain may make upon this Country, which will act only on the Defenſive; and in ſo juſt a Cauſe we may reaſonably hope to have Succeſs. The Bourbon Family have forced this Kingdom into the War, without the leaſt Shadow of Equity for ſuch a Proceeding, having no other Pretext for this Rupture than a Demand that Portugal ſhould join in their offenſive Alliance againſt England."

July 12. The Maſter of a Fiſhing Veſſel arrived here Yeſterday from Cape-Ann ſays, That on the 26th of June, on Bank Vert, in Lat. 46, he ſpoke with a Brig in Company with another Brig and Schooner, all full of Men, Women and Children, who ſaid that on the 24th they had been drove off their Settlement in the Bay of Bulls, near St. John's in Newfoundland, by three Spaniſh Men of War of the Line, from 80 to 60 Guns, and one Frigate, who landed and deſtroyed their Cattle; that they eſcaped to another Harbour, and got on board theſe Veſſels. That the Spaniſh Ships had drove on Shore a Brig from Ireland, with about 100 Soldiers, who got to the Land; but the Brig was taken. That a Fiſhing Veſſel had got to St. John's, the Maſter of which ſaid, he ſaw the Spaniards ſink 10 Fiſhing Veſſels on the Great Bank. That there were other Spaniſh Ships of Force on the Banks beſide the forementioned Veſſels. That they expected to be attacked at St. John's.

Capt. Samuel Dogget, of the Sloop Swallow, arrived here Yeſterday in 8 Days from Halifax, and ſays, That on the 27th of June he heard that the Syren Frigate was arrived there with Advice, That a Fiſhing Schooner had come into St. John's, who ſaid, that on the Banks he met with 5 large Ships and a Frigate, who fired 100 Shot at him, and ſeveral Vollies of Small Arms, but he eſcaped in a Fog.—That the Syren in her Paſſage met with 6 Tranſports for Quebec, one of which, a large Ship, ſaid, that they had fired at a Schooner to bring her to, the Day mentioned by the Schooner aforeſaid.

The Syren arrived at Halifax laſt Thurſday Se'nnight, and after ſtaying there a ſhort Time, ſailed again for .—Lord Colvil, in the Northumberland Man of War of 74 Guns, is now at Halifax.

NEW-YORK, July 15.

On Tueſday laſt arrived here the Sloop Alice, Capt. Toſh, in 30 Days from Jamaica; but laſt from the Havannah in 15 Days. By him we learn, that 17 Days ago, 3 Leagues off the Havannah, he was boarded by an Engliſh Officer of his Majeſty's Ship the Alcide, who informed him, that the Troops under the Command of the Earl of Albemarle, landed at the Havannah without Oppoſition; but that the Spaniards gave them a warm Reception as ſoon as they made their Approaches; that they had ſunk three of their Ships in the Entrance of the Harbour, to prevent the Engliſh Fleet from getting in; that a Party of Sailors belonging to an Engliſh Frigate, going on Shore in Search of freſh Proviſions, were ſurrounded by the Enemy, and 13 of them cut to Pieces, in a very inhuman Manner; and that a Lieutenant of the Rangers had his Noſe and Ears cut off, and was otherwiſe uſed very ungenteely by the Spaniards, and ſent to the Engliſh Camp by Way of Deriſion; which Intelligence incenſed the Earl of Albemarle ſo much, that he ſent Word to the Governor of the Havannah, that he ſhould neither give nor take Quarters, and deſired him to kill every Engliſh Priſoner he ſhould take, for he would do the ſame by all the Spaniards he met with. [This may be doubted.]

About a Week before Captain Toſh left Jamaica, ſome Engliſh Priſoners arrived there from St. Jago on the Iſland of Cuba, who had been taken and carried in there by a French Privateer:—They aſſured, That the Spaniards at that Place had not received any Account of War being declared; that no Privateers were fitted out there; and that only two Men of War were in that Harbour, with their Top-maſts and Yards all ſtruck.

Extract of a Letter from a Gentleman at New-Port, in Rhode-Iſland, to his Friend in this City, dated July 13.

"Laſt Evening arrived here from St. Michael's, one of the Weſtern Iſlands, Capt. James Clark, who brings an Account of one of our Men of War taking a Spaniſh Galleon with 37 Millions of Dollars on board, and carried her to England; ſhe was taken near the Weſtern Iſlands in her Way to Spain. There were five of them, not in Company, which were to ſail ſoon after this, and that there were two large Gallies cruiſing off the Iſland to meet them, to furniſh them with Men, which they had on board for that Purpoſe. Capt. Clark informs farther, that he ſpoke with the Superbe Man of War, who informed him that ſhe and two more Men of War was ſtationed off the Iſland to cruiſe for the other Galleons; and that there were four French Men of War cruiſing likewiſe to meet with the Galleons, to convoy them ſafe to Port: That one Day the Engliſh Men of War ſaw the four French to the Windward of them lying by, but did not offer to bear down, and that another of our Men of War had taken a very rich Spaniſh Ship, loaded with Money and Hides from Colona, in the Braſils, and carried her to Madeira; he ſays that the above News was credited in the Iſland." [There is doubtleſs a Miſtake in the above huge Account of Dollars, ſaid to be taken, of at leaſt 2 or 3 Cyphers; ſo enormous a Quantity as 37,000,000, would be a Weight of 977 Tons, 7 C. 2 qrs. and 20 lbs. and is more than ever NOAH's Ark would carry. The Superbe is gone to the Eaſt-Indies.]

PHILADELPHIA, July 22.

We have Advice from the Weſt-Indies, that his Majeſty's Frigate the Huſſar was loſt laſt Month, on a Reef of Rocks near Cape Francois, the People ſaved: That an Engliſh Privateer Brig was loſt near Port Plate, on Hiſpaniola: That the Spaniſh Privateers had taken 4 Engliſh Veſſels off Cape Francois, and carried them into the Mount: And that the French Fleet of Men of War were in the Cape the latter End of laſt Month.

The Ship William and Mary, Capt Nicholſon, and Brig Grace, Capt. Ritchie, are arrived here from Gibraltar.—Theſe Veſſels were two of thoſe detained in Spain ſince the Beginning of the Spaniſh War, and releaſed by Order of that Court. By a Gentleman who came Paſſenger, we are favoured with the following Intelligence, viz. That a Dutch Man of War arrived at Malaga about the firſt of May, and informed, that 12 Ships of the Line, and 4 Frigates, were preparing for the Sea at Toulon, with the utmoſt Expedition, and it was thought would be ready to ſail for Carthagena about the latter End of May: That there were 12 Ships of the Line at Cadiz, beſides Frigates, and 4 of the large Ships were actually fallen into the Bay, manned and ready for Sea: That the Spaniſh Army going againſt Portugal conſiſted of 40,000 Men, and was encamped at Zamora; General Soria, who commanded it, is ſaid to be recalled, and the Conde Miranda, Miniſter at the Court of Poland, is ordered to the Command thereof: That there was ſome Deſertion among the Spaniſh Troops and many more would follow as Opportunity offered: That the Portugueſe Frontier Garriſons are well provided, and that their Army amounted to 30,000 Foot: That about the 24th of May they heard at Gibraltar, that two new-raiſed Regiments were arrived at Liſbon from Ireland, and more daily expected, alſo a fine Train of Artillery, and a Camp was marked out for the Engliſh Troops a few Miles from Liſbon: That there were 8 Sail of Portugueſe Men of War of the Line ready for Sea: That the King of Spain had iſſued an Edict, forbidding all Trade by Sea for three Years, if the War laſted ſo long: That the Spaniſh Nation was much diſſatisfied with the War: That 17 Sail of the Line, with 6 Frigates, and 3 Bombs, were at Gibraltar under the Command of Admiral Saunders, and Commodores Brett and Amherſt, who keep a good Look-out for the Carthagena and Toulon Squadrons, which were expected down; That it was ſaid two whole Regiments had left the Spaniſh Army, and joined the Portugueſe: That the former were in much Want of the Neceſſaries for an Army; and that a French Privateer of 22 Guns was ſent into Gibraltar.

ANNAPOLIS, July 29.

We are informed by a Gentleman from the Northward, who left New-York on Thurſday laſt, and Philadelphia on Sunday, that a flying Squadron of Spaniſh Men of War, conſiſting of 3 large Ships and 2 Frigates, have landed a Detachment of Troops at St. John's on Newfoundland, and done much Miſchief to our Fiſhermen on the Banks: In Conſequence of which Report, General Amherſt immediately diſpatched the Packet Home. The Gosport Man of War, which brought 170,000*l.* from England, laſt from Virginia, is alſo ſailed, as was ſuppoſed, to the Havannah; and Two Veſſels from Ireland, with Proviſions, which came no nigher to New-York than Sandy-Hook, are conjectured to have proceeded to the ſame Place.

A Veſſel juſt arrived from Jamaica at Philadelphia, after a ſhort Paſſage, about a Month ago paſſed near enough to the Havannah, to diſtinguiſh the Report of the Guns, and diſcover the Bombs flying. The Maſter obſerved a Firſt Rate towed out of the Harbour without her Foremaſt; and thinks they were carrying on very Hot Work. He ſpoke with Two Frigates off the North End of the Iſland waiting for the Tranſports from New-York.

Two of the Enemies Privateers, a Sloop and a Schooner, are cruizing off the Mouth of Delaware: Betwixt which, and Sandy-Hook, a large Brig, with a green Stern and white Bottom, lies aground, and two Tents are ſtanding on the Shore.

The Managers are, Messrs. Christopher Lowndes, John Row, Thomas Chittam, Richard Henderson, Francis Hatfield, Daniel Stephenson, Richard Whittle, Thomas Gantt, junr. (one of the first Commissioners for laying out Bladensburg), and David Ross: They will give Bond for their faithful Performance, and act upon Oath in the Discharge of the Trust reposed in them.
